

SEMINAR DOCUMENTATION

ALL AROUND THE BOOK «THE MAGIC MOUNTAIN»

The hotel «Waldhotel Davos» (once a forest sanatorium) was the temporary residence of Katia Mann, who was the wife of the famous writer and Nobel Prize laureate Thomas Mann. In 1912, while she was getting cured, he used to visit her there. The location of the property and its surroundings inspired him to write the renowned book «The Magic Mountain».

MEET & WORK, WHERE OTHERS SPEND THEIR HOLIDAYS

Three seminar rooms (Aura I, Aura II and Lectio) with adjacent group rooms and equipped with modern technical features – that's how the exclusive Waldhotel seminar offer looks like. The rooms can be subdivided according to the occasion (meetings, seminars, presentations, speeches,...) and depending on the number of participants, various seating formations are possible. Our facilities such as the maple parquet, our red-orange chairs as well as light curtains give each room a friendly and cosy atmosphere.
